

People's Choice Award

We are giving the power to the people! This category invites garden enthusiasts and plant lovers to cast their vote and nominate their favourite garden centre in NSW or ACT.

HOW IT WORKS

Eligibility: To participate in the NGINA People's Choice Award for Retail Garden Centre of the Year, the garden centre must be a registered member of NGINA (Nursery & Garden Industry NSW & ACT). Only NGINA member garden centres are eligible for this award.

Voting Process: Customers are invited to vote for their favourite garden centre by following the steps below:

- a. Visit the NGINA website or use the QR code to the voting platform for the award.
- b. Locate the section or page dedicated to the People's Choice Award for Retail Garden Centre of the Year.
- c. Browse the list of NGINA member garden centres participating in the award.
- d. Select the garden centre that you believe deserves the title of Retail Garden Centre of the Year.
- e. Follow the instructions provided on the website or platform to submit your vote. This includes providing your name, email address, or other required details.
- f. Submit your vote for the chosen garden centre. Only one vote per person is allowed.

Voting Period: The voting period for the NGINA People's Choice Award for Retail Garden Centre of the Year will be clearly indicated on the NGINA website or the voting platform. Customers must submit their votes within the specified timeframe to have their votes counted.

Winner Selection: After the voting period ends, the garden centre with the most votes will be declared the winner of the People's Choice Award for Retail Garden Centre of the Year.
