

Calling for Expression of Interest – NGINA is looking for Non-Executive Directors

Do you want to:

- Have your say on how your association is run?
- Make recommendations on industry policy and best practice?
- Network and collaborate with industry leaders and experts?
- Develop your career?
- Give back to the industry?

NGINA is seeking board members who have a sound knowledge of the nursery and garden industry and skills in either financial management, corporate governance or communications through their experience with Not-for-Profit entities, large and small business or the government and financial sector.

The Board plays a key role in the governance of the organisation, serving as the guardian of the organisation's strategic vision and values while ensuring compliance and effective risk management.

As a Board member you will be responsible for:

- Organisational adherence to our constitution.
- Supporting the development and execution of the Strategic Plan
- Maintaining compliance with relevant statutory laws and regulations.
- Ensuring strong financial management of our finances.
- Supporting programs through direct involvement and ambassadorship.
- Consistent attendance and active engagement at Board meetings.
- Timely engagement with online communications.
- Sharing your knowledge and insights with the Board and Chief Executive Officer

There are three (3) x three-year terms available and the Board meets online at least 6 times a year. The meetings start at 8.30 and usually finish around 2pm. Board members receive a modest fee plus their expenses reimbursed to attend Board meetings.

For more information email the NGINA office at info@ngina.com.au to request a Directors Information Kit.
